Davide Bardi (Italy). Storyteller, musician and artistic director of the project.

Professional actor and storyteller, Davide is Paola Balbi's business and stage partner since 2007. He is co-artistic director of Raccontamiunastoria Storytelling Company and Raccontamiunastoria International Storytelling Festival. Davide has served on the Board of FEST – Federation for European Storytelling from 2013 to 2016. Alongside with being a performer in his own right, Davide is also a musician. He plays guitar, harmonica and several percussions. He accompanies his storytelling and other tellers with improvised original live music.
He has travelled all over the world with his repertoire of musical stories as a featured artist in the most prestigious storytelling festivals and venues. Davide has a warm, deep, extremely well trained voice, that makes of him also a praised voice over artist in the film and tv industry in Italy. Davide and Paola are famous in the international storytelling scene for telling in tandem the same story under the female and the male point of view.
He speaks Italian, French and English.
