David Ambrose (UK). Storyteller and consultant artistic director.

David Ambrose has been at the forefront of the storytelling revival in the United Kingdom for the past 20 years, as a promoter, a performer, and as Artistic Director of Beyond The Border Wales International Storytelling Festival.

As a performance storyteller, he tells for both adult and children's audiences, performing regularly in theaters, community centers and schools across Wales, and appearing at international festivals around the world. He is also a founder member of the Tales From Beyond The Border Storytelling Company, with Megan Lloyd, Francis Maxey and composer Peter Stacey.

Festival appearances include Festival intercultural du contes du Quebec, Chepstow Festival, Toronto Festival of Storytelling, Rome International Storytelling Festival, Vale of Glamorgan Festival, Fabula Storytelling Festival in Stockholm, Alden Biesen Festival in Belgium, and Healing Words Festival, Israel.

David has recently worked with The National Museum of Wales on a programme of Storytelling and Music Events as part of the UK Festival of Muslim Cultures, and has also been responsible for a series of innovative inter-generational storytelling projects taking place in communities across Wales.
