

Kamini Ramachandran (Singapore) - Storyteller

Asia's leading storyteller, based in Singapore. Chairwoman of Asian network of Storytellers and artistic director of Singapore International Storytelling Festival. Professor of Storytelling at LASALLE College of the Arts. She is a specialist storytelling trainer for tertiary level programmes in Arts Management, Animation, Art Therapy, Arts Education, Theatre & Drama Studies and more.

She has gained an international presence with invitations to present keynotes, conduct workshops and masterclasses as well as perform in public. She was the keynote speaker for the inaugural Chennai Storytelling Festival, and has travelled to Bangalore and Shillong in India conducting workshops and performing her repertoire. She has been a featured storyteller at Festival at the Edge, Britain oldest storytelling festival, was a featured artist at the Festival Internazionale Di Storytelling Raccontamiunastoria in Rome, participated in the Sydney International Storytelling Conference, and she represented Malaysia and Singapore in the prestigious Scottish International Storytelling Festival. She was also a featured storytelling artist at The Storytelling Castle for the Alden Biesen International Storytelling Festival in Belgium. Kamini also participated in the annual conference held in Italy in 2013 Federation for European Storytelling (FEST).
