

Martina Pisciali (Italy). Storyteller

Martina is a young talented storyteller and one of Paola Balbi's most brilliant disciples. She has worked extensively with Raccontamiunastoria for the last five years both as staff and artist at Storytelling Festivals. She is founder of Storytelling Torino, Storytelling Company in the North of Italy. Martina loves to travel and discover stories from different cultures, but is also very passionate about traditional heritage stories related to the landscape of her native Dolomite mountains. She speaks Italian and German and English.
