

Mats Rehman (Sweden) - Storyteller

Mats Rehman is a professional storyteller, living in Stockholm and a leading artist on the scene of the International Storytelling Revival. Since 1987 he has performed all around Sweden for children, youth and adult-audiences on commission from cultural centers, schools, libraries, theaters, companies, radio, festivals etc, with traditional and original stories. He is also involved in international cooperations with storytellers and groups. He is often seen as featured performer on festivals and storytelling clubs in countries around the world. In 2001 he received the Mickels Prize in the storytelling festival in Ljungby. Mats is a member of the company Fabula Storytelling, a professional group located in Stockholm.
