ITALIANA
STORYTELLING

Stories of magic and transformation:
nothing can change a life more than a good story

There have been great societies that did not use the wheel, but there have been no societies
that did not tell stories

Ursula K. Le Guin

Following the great success of the first two editions Raccontamiunastoria Storytelling Company is proud to announce the 3rd edition of the International Storytelling Festival Raccontamiunastoria. The Festival will take place in Rome on 30 September and 1-2 October 2011 in the beautiful setting of the Park of Appia Antica.

The Festival is promoted by F.I.S.T (Federation for Italian Storytelling) and Parco Regionale Appia Antica. In the heart of a city full of history, a festival to celebrate and share the magic of stories through tales, legends, myths and songs told by the voices of the best international storytellers.

A unique event to bring storytelling to the Italian and multicultural audience in Rome, where each storyteller will create a bridge of images between his/her culture and the audience, making of each story a special gift and a multisensorial experience.

First and unique International Storytelling Festival of Italy Raccontamiunastoria is a vibrant, young and colourful event organised by young artists to celebrate the oldest of all arts in new and exciting ways: storytelling performances mixing storytelling with visual arts, music, dance, comic and fashion design, interactive workshops, open floors (where everyone is welcome to tell a story), multilingual shows, children performances and sightseeing storytelling.

Events will take place throughout the three days of the festival from 11am to 12pm, both in English and Italian with simultaneous translation.

The International Storytelling Festival Raccontamiunastoria is a self-sponsored event.

If you wish and can support this initiative by any means or want to take part to our Festival, please contact us and help us making of this third edition yet another unforgettable experience!
